USDF Awards $10,000 To Top Sport Horses

Lincoln, Nebraska (April 22, 2002), – The United States Dressage Federation (USDF), awarded over $10,000 in prize money to the owners of 39 of the best sport horses in the United States through the 2001 Cosequin/USDF Breeders Championship Series. Over 2,000 horses were judged in-hand on conformation and movement in one or more of the 58 participating competitions. Horses qualified to compete in one of ten series finals held throughout the nation, where the series Grand Champion and Reserve Young Horse and Grand Champion and Reserve Mature Horse were named.

Winners took home prize money, neck sashes, coolers and Cosequin nutraceuticals which were made possible by the Cosequin/USDF Breeders' Championship Series Event sponsors Cosequin, American Warmblood Registry, American Hanoverian Society, Iron Spring Farm, ISR-Oldenburg Registry of North America, and contributing sponsors American Warmblood Society, Dutch Warmblood Studbook in North America, and the Federation of North American Sport Horse Registries.

This year, the series have grown from ten to twelve. The original ten series were East Coast, Southeast, East Central, West Central, Mid-States, Southern, Rocky Mountain, Northern California, Southern California, and Northwest. New this year are the Southwest (Arizona area, formerly part of the Rocky Mountain Series), and Mid-South (Georgia area, formerly part of the Southeast Series), Series. At press time, 59 events had been scheduled for 2002, with additional events still being added, according to Shedera Bausch, USDF's events and administration coordinator. A complete list of competitions is available on USDF website at www.usdf.org.
